True Importance

“For the most important person in the world – you!” Whenever I see an ad with a line like that in it, I feel like turning off the TV or ripping out the page. What a terrible attitude to expose children to. Anyone living by that philosophy is condemning themselves to an unhappy, selfish life.

We are important...but as children of God. Made in God's image, we are made to love and love is expressed as care. Imagine a community where everyone aimed at doing what was best for each other. Now you have some idea of the dance of love that goes on within God between the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Many of you would have experienced a taste of that passion when your new born baby was first placed in your arms. The surge of care and responsibility towards this infant is a taste of true love.

The challenge as parents is to continue that love and care, day in and day out when you often don't feel like it. But there is a greater challenge: to teach your child/ren to love and care in the simple daily tasks of family, school and community life. Rather than looking after 'number one' they need to learn to be like God and look after each other. Fostering habits of helpfulness will lay the foundation for true happiness. Small acts of daily service help them to grow into large-hearted people – true sons and daughters of God.

Loving God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, you call us to join in your dance of love. Give us the wisdom to show our children how to truly love you and to care for each other. We ask this in Jesus' name confident that you will hear us.

Dear Parents and Carers,

As term three comes to a close, it is a good time to reflect on the positives and how much your children have grown, developed and learned since the beginning of the year. It is inspiring to listen to the conversations and learnings in the classrooms as I try and spend time in classes.

I would like to thank Monique Hall, facilitator of the 'Circle of Life' program, and the teachers, for supporting this very important and valuable part of the curriculum. The children were very mature and interested and asked some thought provoking questions. I hope you were able to take the opportunity to begin conversations with your children. Thank you to those parents, who let me know how they found this opportunity an important starting point for discussion.

Please don't think that I have forgotten about the meetings with our early years' families. Laura will call you early in term 4 so I can continue with these important conversations.

Families and Schools Together (FAST) initiative winds up this week. Thank you to all the community, parent and school partners who have worked tirelessly each Wednesday night for the last eight weeks. It is a true celebration of togetherness and trust and I know the families who have participated have thoroughly enjoyed it.

Over the holidays, we are getting some maintenance done around the school including the painting of the year 3,4,5 & 6 classrooms. I know the year 5 & 6s are eagerly awaiting their return in term 4 as they have been designing their classrooms into learning spaces that they want to be in. We are all awaiting the outcome with new colour design and furniture.

Thursday – 9am End of Term Mass in celebration of Our Lady of Mercy (ALL WELCOME)

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all children and family members lucky enough to have holidays a safe and restful break. Take time to rejuvenate and charge the batteries ready for the very busy last term.

Recycling

Please continue to collect your lids and pop them in the box in the office as this is a great initiative and something to which we can all contribute. These lids will be converted into things like prosthetics for kids. If you have any questions please see Mrs Terri Smith.

Footy Colours Day & Hot Dog Lunch

With Miss Shanny and my team not even in the top eight at the end of the season, I hope your team has been more successful. Footy Colours Day is a great time to show your support and get on board with a winning team. We will be having some footy activities over lunch.

Mr Morgan has placed a form on Facebook to fill in if you are attending our lunch. Please fill it in as it helps with catering. Here is the link if you missed it.
